

Sunkonnect Advisory Services Private Limited

Quality Policy

Date: 25-04-2024

Rev No: 00

Quality Policy

We at Sunkonnect Advisory Services Private Limited are committed to provide the Quality Inspection Services in a timely manner, at competitive price, with the desired quality and adhering to the principles of independence, impartiality, equality and confidentiality, in order to meet the needs of customers.

- To continue its activities in accordance with the applicable legal requirements required by the ISO / IEC 17020: 2012 standard.
- The Inspection Management System has the full commitment of senior management who shall be responsible for ensuring the effectiveness and understanding of this Policy, the system, and the applicable procedures that apply to their operation.
- Creating an exemplary company culture by increasing communication, sharing and solidarity among employees and departments, and adopting the customer-oriented quality approach to the entire organization.
- Ensuring enough number of competent inspection personnel to correctly understand customer requirements, correctly define and develop the processes that will ensure the customer delight.
- To continuously set new targets in order to keep up with changing market conditions and to ensure development, to follow the technological developments closely by providing the necessary investments and training, to increase competitiveness by reaching the organizational goals.
- To create sample practices by complying with all legal obligations regarding work safety

Date: 25.04.2024

Director

Raghavendra Lawaniya

